

△ BY A WHISKER

Males sport side whiskers and a hairy top knot not seen in females. This sexual difference allows males to identify rivals easily.

◁ BATTLE FORMATION

Two male green jumping spiders size each other up before a fight. Interactions between members of this species are frequently aggressive.