

Above Street dancers perform the tango in La Boca, the colorful port district that is the birthplace of the famous dance

Left Tending the barbecue for an asado – an astonishing and seemingly never-ending array of tender grilled meats

Below The grassy plains, or pampas, around Buenos Aires provide grazing for cattle under the watchful eyes of the gauchos

