

Hips are rotated and the legs are bent upward to check for signs of dislocation.