

When your baby opens their mouth wide, bring them to the breast, ensuring that they take all of the nipple and the areola into their mouth.