

Positioning your baby well at the breast and ensuring that they latch on properly will help to avoid sore, painful nipples.