

or who are obese are more at risk.

Wearing support hose, drinking plenty, and moving around while flying can help. If you must fly and are at increased risk of DVT, talk to your doctor about medication that can reduce the risk of developing a clot.