

Your baby still has slender arms and legs and little fat under the skin. Their skin is covered with fine lanugo hair and waxy vernix and they now have eyebrows and eyelashes—their first mature hairs.