

Your pregnancy is coming to an end, so instead of nurturing your belly, you'll soon be nurturing your amazing newborn baby.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

In one survey, 58 percent of parents questioned believed that the name they gave their baby would contribute to their success in life. More found it easier to name a boy than a girl, and just 3 percent said they would change the name they'd given their baby if they could.