

In a kneeling position, both your partner and the nurse can support you as you bear down (top). Being on all fours with the hospital bed for support can be a comfortable position (bottom).