

THE ROBOTS ARE COMING!

For decades, filmmakers have been designing awesome robots for movies, and at last it seems real life is catching up. In Korea, engineers are testing Future Technology's Method-2, a robotic, bipedal giant controlled by a human pilot sitting in its chest. If the pilot lifts an arm, Method-2 lifts an arm, only this arm is about 10ft (3m) long!