

The nose contains 1,000 types of odor receptor that can detect 20,000 different smells.

Unpleasant smells

Some unpleasant smells warn us of danger. The smell of smoke might mean a building is on fire. Food that smells odd may be rotten or poisonous. When milk smells sour, it is a sign that it is not safe to drink.

