Africa

The Seychelles became independent from France in 1976. In 1977, a coup d'état brought the Seychelles Peoples United Party to power.

The Seychelles has had three flags since independence. After the coup of 1977 a new national flag based on the party flag of the ruling SPUP was adopted. This used their colors of red, white, and green.

Following the adoption of the Constitution of 1993, the existence of other parties was permitted and the latest flag allows for the colors of the Democratic Party to be included in a striking new design.

The coat of arms was adopted in 1976 and it has been only slightly altered since then. It is based on the old colonial badge and depicts the most famous inhabitant of the islands, the giant tortoise.

ARMS OF THE SEYCHELLES

Two sailfish support the arms
The giant tortoise and palm have been in use in the arms since the 19th century

The crest is a paille-en-queue, a native bird of the Seychelles

A Latin motto—"Finis Coronat Opus," meaning "The end crowns the work," was chosen in the 19th century
