Mauritius was taken over by Britain from France in 1810. The colony achieved independence in 1968 and became a republic in 1992.

The flag was designed by the College of Arms in Britain prior to independence, and is a simple statement of the colors found in the coat of arms.

MAURITIUS'S COAT OF ARMS

The coat of arms was granted on August 25, 1906, and depicts various attributes of the island. In the lower right quarter is a key and on the left-hand side is a white star, which are referred to in the Latin motto, "Stella Clavisque Maris Indici" ("The star and the key of the Indian Ocean"). The supporters are a dodo and a deer each holding a sugar cane, the island's staple crop.
