Europe

Part of Austria–Hungary until 1918, Hungary became part of the communist bloc from 1945–1989.

The current flag was first used in the 1848–49 uprising. Its pattern was derived from the French Tricolore used during the French Revolution. The colors: red, white, and green date back to the 9th century. They were first used in 1608 during the reign of King Matthias II. Until 1945, the royal crown featured in the center of the national flag. During Hungary's brief period as a republic from 1945–1949 the royal crown was replaced by the “Kossuth” coat of arms. When the Communists took power, they added a Soviet-style emblem to the flag. In 1990, the arms of the kingdom were re-adopted but they were not replaced on the flag.
