

Singapore

Ratio: 2:3 Adopted: December 3, 1959 Usage: National and Civil

Asia

Granted self-government by Britain in 1959, Singapore became part of the Federation of Malaysia in 1963, and fully independent in 1965.

The flag dates from when Singapore became a self-governing British colony in 1959. It was preserved when Singapore joined the Malaysian Federation and adopted as the national flag when Singapore became fully independent in 1965.

The colors of red and white are those of the Malay people. Red is supposed to represent universal brotherhood and equality, while white symbolizes purity and virtue. The white crescent signifies the new nation of Singapore, while the five stars next to it represent the ideals of democracy, peace, progress, justice and equality.

The President's flag is a plain red field with the crescent and star emblem in the center.
