Ratio: 1:2 Adopted: October 10, 1970 Usage: National and Civil

The Union Jack denotes the historical links with Great Britain

The design is based on the British Blue Ensign

The blue field represents the Pacific Ocean

Australasia and Oceania

Fiji became part of the British Empire in 1874, and an independent nation with dominion status within the Commonwealth in 1970.

The flag was adopted in 1970, when Fiji achieved independence. Its bright blue background symbolizes the Pacific Ocean, which plays an important part in the lives of the islanders, both in terms of the fishing industry, and the burgeoning tourist trade. The Union Jack reflects the country's links with Great Britain.

ARMS OF FIJI

The shield is derived from the country's official coat of arms, which was originally granted by Royal Warrant in 1908. The images depicted on the shield represent agricultural activities on the islands, and the historical associations with Great Britain.

ARMS OF FIJI

The first quarter shows sugar cane, the second a coconut palm, the third a dove of peace, and the fourth a bunch of bananas

On the chief, a British lion holds a coconut between its paws

The coat of arms was granted in 1908. It is a white shield, with a red cross and a red chief (the upper third of a shield)
