

A BUSY DAY IN BODIE

It's another hot afternoon in the summer of 1880 as the citizens of Bodie go about their business on Main Street. It seems as though every day brings change as people seeking to profit from the mining of gold arrive from out of town and set up new homes and businesses. Bodie is booming.

1 New arrivals

These men are visiting from a nearby ranch. They need to find a stable for their horses.

2 Hairdresser

Jane Carter, one of the town's hairdressers, is taking a break between customers.

3 Bar fight

A brawl at one of the saloons has spilled into the street, attracting a pair of lawmen.

4 Shopping trip

This mother and child are off to Boone's store to pick up some supplies and maybe a toy.

5 Traveling doctor

A crowd has gathered to see what this healer has to offer before he moves on to the next town.

6 Precious cargo

The coach is loading up with gold and silver bullion. It is protected by an armed guard.