

CAVE PAINTINGS

These hands were painted on the walls of the Cueva de las Manos (Cave of the Hands) in Argentina between 13,000 and 9,500 years ago. The people who created them used a hollow bird bone to blow paint over their hands. Some of the hands are small and probably belonged to children.