

LAS VEGAS

In 1910, a year before it officially became a city, Las Vegas, Nevada, had a population of just 800 people and was surrounded by desert. Today, its population of more than 580,000 residents is continuously swelled by millions of visitors to its famous casinos, hotels, and entertainment.

MONUMENT VALLEY

A famous landmark on the Colorado Plateau in the southwestern United States, Monument Valley contains a number of distinctive steep-sided, isolated hills called buttes. These sandstone monuments reach up to 1,000 ft (300 m) and were formed when the surrounding terrain was eroded.
