

15 Turn the octopus right side out, pulling the tentacles through the hole first, then turning the body to the right side.

16 Firmly stuff the octopus body with toy filling and sew the hole closed.

17 Thread a large-eyed needle with embroidery thread and, using satin stitch and back stitch (see pp.224–245), embroider two eyes and a mouth on the octopus' body.

