

7 Fold up the raw edge of the plain inner cap twice, so that the first fold you made sits against the bottom edge of the outer patterned cap. Make sure the fold is even all around.

8 Using a needle and thread, securely stitch the folded edge of the inner cap to the outer cap, covering the raw edge of the outer cap.

Use soft fabrics that will sit comfortably against baby's sensitive skin. Organic bamboo jersey is a good choice for the inner cap.
