

Cosy bath-time penguin pair

Make bath-time lots of fun with this penguin pair. When making the toy, be sure to choose machine-washable toy filling so that it's not a problem if your penguin wants to go for a quick dip in the bath, too.

YOU WILL NEED ✿ tracing paper ✿ pencil ✿ scissors ✿ 1 bath towel, at least 70 x 127cm (27½ x 50in)
 ✿ 2 white face flannels, at least 30 x 30cm (12 x 12in) each ✿ 1 cream or lemon face flannel, at least 30 x 30cm (12 x 12in) ✿ scraps of black or navy fabric, for eyes ✿ pins ✿ sewing machine capable of zigzag stitch ✿ white thread ✿ bright blue thread ✿ 4m (158in) of 2.5cm (1in) bias binding ✿ thread to match towel ✿ cream or lemon thread ✿ small plate or bowl ✿ tailor's chalk ✿ machine-washable toy filling ✿ needle

1 Trace and cut out the templates from page 232. Lay out the towel and cut the sections to size, as shown in the diagram above.

2 Cut the penguins' face and tummy pieces from the white flannels and the beak sections from the cream or lemon flannel. For the eyes, cut two 3cm (1¼in) circles and two 2cm (¾in) circles from the black or navy fabric.
