

1964, NEW JERSEY

“When we first heard that inexplicable “hum,” we didn’t understand its significance, and we never dreamed it would be connected to the origins of the Universe.”

Arno Penzias, on his discovery of the cosmic microwave background radiation

Arno Penzias and Robert Wilson are dwarfed by the 50-ft-(15-m-) long Holmdel Horn Antenna, New Jersey.
