

IN BRIEF

THE SECOND WAVE

The women's liberation movement was broad. North American, European, and Oceanian women shared common ideas while advocating for rights in their own countries.

1900

- 1966 The National Organization for Women (NOW) is founded in the US.
- 1968 Women machinists at the Ford automobile factory in the UK strike for equal pay.
- 1970 Australian feminist Germaine Greer publishes The Female Eunuch.
- 1971 Italian feminists launch the International Wages for Housework Campaign; 343 French women sign a manifesto in support of abortion rights, admitting to having had the procedure.
- 1973 The Roe versus Wade Supreme Court case decriminalizes abortion in the US; Our Bodies, Ourselves is published.
- 1974 Simone Veil facilitates access to contraception in France; a year later, her activism leads to the legalization of abortion.
- 1975 Icelandic women strike to protest pay inequality; the first "Take Back the Night" march occurs in Philadelphia in response to the murder of Susan Alexander Speeth by a stranger.
- 1981 Women set up a women-only camp at Greenham Common, UK, to protest against the use of nuclear weapons; the first Latin American and Caribbean Feminist Conference takes place in Bogotá, Colombia.

► BRAS, SYMBOLS OF WOMEN'S OBJECTIFICATION, WERE THE FOCUS OF THIS PROTEST OUTSIDE OF A DEPARTMENT STORE IN SAN FRANCISCO IN 1969.

