

EUROPE

BIGGEST AND SMALLEST COUNTRIES

Covering a vast expanse of land, the Russian Federation is the world's largest country. It has 11 time zones and shares land borders with 14 other countries. Vatican City, the centre of the Catholic Church, is located within the Italian city of Rome and is the world's smallest country.

BIGGEST COUNTRIES

- 1 RUSSIAN FEDERATION
17,098,242 sq km (6,601,668 sq miles)
- 2 CANADA
9,984,670 sq km (3,855,103 sq miles)
- 3 UNITED STATES
9,629,091 sq km (3,717,813 sq miles)
- 4 CHINA
9,598,094 sq km (3,705,845 sq miles)
- 5 BRAZIL
8,514,877 sq km (3,287,612 sq miles)

SMALLEST COUNTRIES

- 1 VATICAN CITY
0.44 sq km (0.17 sq miles)
- 2 MONACO
2 sq km (0.7 sq miles)
- 3 NAURU
21 sq km (8 sq miles)
- 4 TUVALU
26 sq km (10 sq miles)
- 5 SAN MARINO
61 sq km (24 sq miles)

