

Every day your kidneys clean hundreds of pints of blood and filter out harmful waste chemicals. The wastes are flushed out of your body in urine, along with water your body doesn't need.

